

Email Privacy Policy

We have created this email privacy policy to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy and the protection of your information.

Why did you receive an email from us?

If you received a mailing from us, (a) your email address is either listed with us as someone who has expressly shared this address for the purpose of receiving information in the future ("opt-in"), or (b) you have registered or purchased or otherwise have an existing relationship with us. We respect your time and attention by controlling the frequency of our mailings.

How we protect your privacy

We use security measures to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of data used by our system.

Sharing and Usage

We will never share, sell, or rent individual personal information with anyone without your advance permission or unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to employees managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you emails based on your request for information.

Newsletter

Should a user wish to subscribe to our newsletter, we ask for contact information such as name and email address. We send all new subscribers a welcoming email to verify their email address and their desire to subscribe. As well as our Newsletter, subscribers will occasionally receive information on products and services.

Referral Service

If a user elects to use our referral service for informing a friend about our newsletter or seminars, we ask them for the friend's name and email address. MSF Events will automatically send the friend a one-time email promoting the newsletter or seminar. We use this information for the sole purpose of sending this one-time email. The friend's name and email address is not retained or stored in any database or by any other means. They will receive no other communication from MSF Events unless they personally subscribe to our newsletter via our web site.

How can you stop receiving email from us?

Each email sent contains an easy, automated way for you to cease receiving email from us. If you wish to do this, simply follow the instructions at the end of any email. If you have received unwanted, unsolicited email sent via this system or purporting to be sent via this system, please forward a copy of that email with your comments to info@msfevents.com for review.
